

BART UPDATE:

Spear Street Entrance Closure during Super Bowl 50 Saturday, January 30th- Sunday, February 7th

After much discussion and rumor about limited access/full closure of the ENTRANCE to BART at Market and Spear Streets, a decision has been reached and is verified by several sources.

All Embarcadero Station portals will be open throughout Super Bowl City with the exception of the entrance at Market and Spear Streets which will be closed Saturday, January 30th- Sunday, February 7th. It will, however, be open during the peak morning commute hours (6:45- 9:45 AM) on weekday mornings, February 1st- 5th, with the support of SFPD. The entrance will remain closed all day on the weekends.

Please refer to the SFMTA Super Bowl 50 Pedestrian Routes Map for additional assistance. The blue dots on this map represent BART portals.

Please refer to the official BART post and map for more information regarding this matter and how to navigate around the Spear Street closure.

Please visit our website for current traffic conditions and register to win prizes!

January 15, 2016