

Jennifer Bock

---

From: Kimberly Martinson
Sent: Monday, April 04, 2016 4:31 PM
Subject: FW: Warriors and A's BOTH Have Home Games on April 5 -- Please distribute to tenants

Dear Members:

Please share this e-mail with your tenants. Tomorrow will be a very busy day for commuters as the Warriors and A's are BOTH having home games.

Visit www.tmasfconnects.org for real-time traffic conditions, transit and paratransit alternatives and other commute assistance services.

Thank you,

Kimberly B. Martinson, CAE
Chief Executive Officer
TMA SF Connects

kmartinson@tmasfconnects.org
www.tmasfconnects.org

P: 415.392.0210
F: 415.392.0224
180 Montgomery Street
Suite 2360
San Francisco CA 94104

*TMA SF reserves the right to cancel or modify the prizes and conditions for winning without notice.

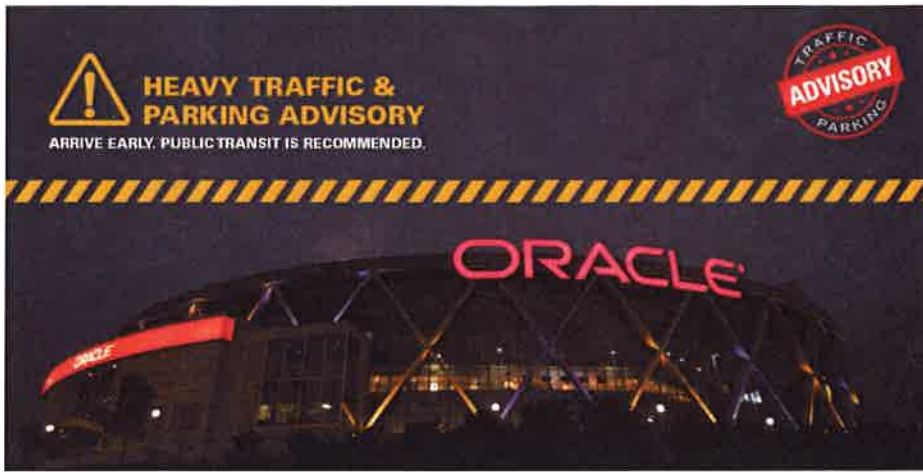

---

From: Golden State Warriors [<mailto:info@warriors-email.com>]
Sent: Monday, April 04, 2016 2:01 PM
To: Kimberly Martinson
Subject: Warriors and A's BOTH Have Home Games on April 5

WARRIORS
ANNOUNCEMENT

Tuesday, April 5 | A's First Pitch: 7:05 PM | Warriors Tipoff: 7:30 PM

The NBA Champion Golden State Warriors and the Oakland A's will host concurrent home games on Tuesday, April 5, at Oracle Arena and the O.co Coliseum. Fans should expect traffic delays through the start of both games with the A's-White Sox first pitch at 7:05 p.m. and the Warriors tip-off against the Timberwolves at 7:30 p.m.

Parking lots are expected to fill quickly, so fans are encouraged to arrive as early as possible or to make use of public transportation. All Warriors parking passes will be honored.

For traffic and parking updates, please tune into the Warriors pregame broadcast on KNBR 1050 and/or KGO 810.

This email was sent by: Golden State Warriors