

Severe Traffic on Southbound 101

Tuesday, November 27th, 2018 @ 4:30 PM

According to SFGate, there is severe traffic and closure of the right lanes on southbound US-101 south of Grand Ave in South San Francisco due to a sinkhole. Motorists are advised to expect delays and to use alternate routes to avoid the area. There is no estimated time to reopen the roadway, according to 511.

As always, we will send an update if the situation persists. Please monitor SFGate and the local media sources listed below for updates. As always, we will send an update as more information becomes available. For commute alternatives, please visit the TMASF Connects website.
