

TMASF Connects Career Network (formerly Professional Development Network)

You're invited to our first Career Network Social!

TMASF Connects Professional Development Network is excited to announce that we are rebranding as TMASF Connects Career Network. We believe this will serve as a more beneficial resource for our members, connecting members and job seekers in a social setting to discuss social behaviors in the workplace. We hope you join us for our inaugural event, a social hour focusing on etiquette and the importance of social skills in the workplace. Please see the graphic below for more details. Hope to see you here! Space is limited so please RSVP by clicking on one of the options below or by responding to this email.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact our office by calling 415-392-0210 or emailing me directly at jlee@tmasfconnects.org.

Join TMA SF Connects Career Network on LinkedIn to keep up to date with our latest program updates. The Career Network aims to serve as a hub is to connect members and job seekers in a social setting, to discuss social behaviors in the workplace and bridge gaps for professional interaction. More information regarding it will be coming up soon.

We will also be premiering our brandnew Microgrant, Scholarship, and Sponsorship Program this year! Members of the newly relaunched TMASF Connects Career Network program will be the first group of people eligible to apply for all of these programs. The Microgrant, Scholarship, and Sponsorship Program will offer scholarships to both students and job-seekers as well as professionals. These funds are not intended solely to cover educational expenses, but may also be used for conferences, training tools, networking events, and more!
