

Health and Safety on Transit

As San Francisco and California begins to safely re-open, new rules and regulations are in effect and may be confusing. TMASF Connects has developed two resource sheets, one for commuters and another for employers, to help navigate these new transportation measures.

Bay Area transit agencies have collectively developed and released the Riding Together: Bay Area Healthy Transit Plan to protect and track the health and safety of transit riders and employees and to standardize best practices and expectations. Click Here to download the complete health and safety plan.

A mask mandate by the CDC requires all passengers on buses, trains, planes, and other forms of transportation to continue wearing face coverings through September 13, 2021.

Please see below for other guidelines from local transportation agencies.

- BART Guidelines
- SFMTA Guidelines (six-foot social distancing from operators, no social distancing required between other passengers)
- AC Transit Guidelines (three-foot social distancing)
- Caltrain Guidelines
- Golden Gate Transit Guidelines (six-foot social distancing from operators, no social distancing required between other passengers)
- Samtrans Guidelines
- SF Bay Ferry Guidelines (capacity limits are lifted)
- TSA Guidelines

Many transit agencies are offering free rides to and from vaccination sites. Stations, trains, and buses continue to be cleaned and sanitized regularly, and schedules continue to be expanded in anticipation of a returning workforce.
